

ANNUAL REPORT

2020-21

Principal's MESSAGE

The year 2020 has thrown a curveball worldwide with the coronavirus pandemic and the subsequent lockdown. Everything has gone off-script, and the whole world has stood perplexed at this Once-in-a-Century Pandemic. The strange and startling similarities between the Great Plague and COVID-19 have sent shockwaves around the world. Many fear that the horrifying and noxious narratives of epidemics in the past are becoming true. Resultantly, many changes have been introduced in the society and many terms like “Lockdown,” “social distancing,” “quarantine,” “containment zone” have become the much-accustomed terms of our daily lives. The State and Central Governments in India have been struggling tremendously to endorse their constitutional responsibility of public health management. Moreover, the police force has been given extensive powers to impose social codes to reduce the spread. Rules and restrictions imposed on the normal life of citizens resemble an Emergency or a military rule. New laws and severe punishments have ended the normality of social life and relationships, which eventually have forced people to cope with the new stay-at-home culture.

The academic community is also not free from troubles and afflictions and it experiences the most severe education disruption in history. The pandemic has brought learning to a screeching halt worldwide. But by the end of May 2020, Government and Universities have come up with many new initiatives and guidelines for avoiding a zero academic year. Classes through various online platforms like Google meet, G-suite, Zoom have been widely promoted and its possibilities have been made accessible to all students. St. George's College also has created digital replicas of the traditional classroom in tune with the changing scenario. All the faculty members arrived at the institution on the commencement day itself, and prior to that, the college and its premises have been cleaned and disinfected thoroughly. A committee has been constituted under the guidance of Dr. Siby Joseph, a senior faculty of the college, to ensure the smooth conduct of the classes through digital platforms. Besides, numerous webinars have been organized under the leadership of Dr. Jilu Ani John, the IQAC Coordinator, to enrich both the teacher and student community.

The pandemic has dramatically pushed the world to reinvent ways of coping with the 'new normal'. On first June itself, regular classes started virtually for the second and third year students. It is heartening to note that the faculty and the students have responded superlatively to the adversities caused by the pandemic. Undoubtedly, the online platforms have provided absolutely a different experience to teachers, students, and parents. Moreover, the virtual interactions with the nationally and internationally known personalities through webinars help to tap the vast treasure trove of information.

I thankfully acknowledge the initiatives taken by the Management for meeting the challenges triggered by the crisis, especially for ensuring accessibility to smartphones and the internet. The college could supply free smartphones to all the deprived students. Apart from that, when all the academic activities have halted in all other educational institutions, St. George's College Aruvithura has come up with several unique programmes. We could blaze a trail, and many neighbouring colleges are inspired into action following our suit. It is gratifying to note that SGCians have celebrated Onam and Christmas digitally despite the complexities of the times. Therefore this Pandemic Calendar is chronicled for the generations to come, as a record of our survival mantra during the pandemic season.

Human history has survived many moments of crisis and natural calamities. Even though the fear and apprehension of the pandemic still linger in us, we do hope that things will be back to normal soon and we will be at a campus teemed with students. These are testing times, still we have many reasons to remain grateful. I would like to place on record my sincere appreciation and gratitude to V. Rev. Dr. Augustine Palackaparambil, our beloved Manager, who leads our institution with great vision; Rev. George Pullukalayil, College Bursar and course coordinator of Self-Finance stream who serves this institution in good spirits; all the teaching and non-teaching staff, students, and parents. Thank you.

Dr. Reji Vargheese Mekkaden

ACADEMIC SCHEDULE

The academic year starts with an academic retreat. An academic calendar is prepared and published at the beginning of every academic year. Under the guidance of Principal, Vice Principal, Heads of Departments and IQAC members, the teachers in charge prepares the academic calendar incorporating the relevant information regarding the working days, holidays, dates of internal examinations, semester examination, departmental action plan on various events to be organized, etc. The principal and exam coordinator ensure that the internal exams are conducted timely and the evaluation is performed efficiently. The model exams are performed according to the schedule of university exam calendar. Also the internal evaluation processes such as assignments, seminars, projects, internships are done by the students as per the curriculum. The internal score is published on time and uploaded to the university portal without any error. The add on courses and certificate courses are also completed time bounded. The Academic Audit conducted by IQAC ensures the smooth and efficient performance of the academic schedule
